Internationally recognised business consultant and organisational expert, Peter Simpson, will deliver two seminars in Melbourne. By attending either of these, you will learn the right solution for your business or personal problems, and how to successfully expand your business yet still have freedom to enjoy your life fully.

Peter has been a consultant to CEOs of multi-billion dollar companies on international projects, as well as to a local refrigeration mechanic, who he helped grow his business from a turn-over of $3 million per year to over $30 million in less than two years! This earned the young owner the prestigious Young Australian Business Achiever of the Year Award.
